Boulder
Main Courtroom in the Wolf
Law Building

CHINA Town Hall is a national day of programming on China involving 50 cities throughout the United States

National Speaker (via webcast):
Dr. Zbigniew Brzezinski

Dr. Zbigniew Brzezinski was National Security Advisor to President Jimmy Carter from 1977 to 1981. In 1981, he was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom "for his role in the normalization of U.S. - Chinese relations and for his contributions to the human rights and national security policies of the United States."

Discussion moderated by Stephen A. Orkins, President of the National Committee on U.S.-China Relations

On-site Speaker:
Mr. David Gries

Mr. David Gries, a former CIA official, is Executive Director of China Vitae, an online database providing information to the public on over 4,000 Chinese leaders. Designed for scholars and analysts, the database uses sophisticated search tools and analytical capabilities. Mr. Gries followed Asian affairs for more than 30 years as a government official residing in Washington and in five Asian countries. He speaks Chinese. At the CIA he held executive positions in operations, analysis, and in the office of the Director.

Fees for attendance will be collected at the door in cash or check; $10 for students, $15 for general public
