

CHINA TOWN HALL

Local Connections, National Reflections

Webcast speaker: Jon M. Huntsman, Jr., U.S. Ambassador to the People's Republic of China

Moderator: Stephen A. Orlins, President, National Committee on U.S.-China Relations

Background:

CHINA Town Hall is a national day of programming on China involving 50 cities throughout the United States and Greater China intended to deepen understanding of Sino-American relations. China's role in the world and the U.S.-China relationship are in the news and at the center of foreign policy discussions around the United States; it is imperative that people in both countries keep up with the rapid changes and development.

Discussion Symposium:

1. Speech delivered by U.S. Ambassador Jon M. Huntsman, Jr.: Issues in U.S.-China Relations (live webcast in Beijing)
2. Ambassador Jon M. Huntsman, Jr., responds to questions from audience members in a conversation moderated by National Committee President Stephen A. Orlins.

Featured Speaker: U.S. Ambassador Jon M. Huntsman

Ambassador Huntsman was elected twice as Governor of Utah, served as Deputy Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Asia, U.S. Ambassador to Singapore and Deputy U.S. Trade Representative (USTR). At USTR, Mr. Huntsman negotiated dozens of trade and investment agreements for the United States with numerous countries, including China. Ambassador Huntsman's public service career began as a White House staff assistant to President Ronald Reagan.

Organizer: The National Committee on United States-China Relations

Local co-organizers: Columbia Global Center, Renmin University of China

Time: Tuesday, October 19, 8:00 a.m. (Beijing, Shanghai, Hong Kong, Taipei)
Monday, October 18, 8:00 p.m. (New York)

Venue: Room 711, Mingde Xinwen Building Renmin U

For additional information, please see www.ncusr.org/cth.