Dandelion School, a nonprofit educational institute located in Daxing District, on the outskirts of Beijing City, is the first and only middle school built especially for the children of low-income migrant families in Beijing.
Outside area
The kitchen.
Cafetería
Dorms. Some students stay in the school all week and go home on the weekend.
Classroom