PUBLIC INTELLECTUALS PROGRAM

The National Committee on United States-China Relations’ Public Intellectuals Program is designed to nurture a new generation of China specialists who have the interest and potential to play significant roles as public intellectuals. The goal of the program is to upgrade the quality of the American public’s understanding of China by strengthening links among U.S. academics, policymakers, and opinion leaders. The first three rounds of the program (2005-13) were funded with grants from The Henry Luce Foundation and The Starr Foundation. The fourth and fifth rounds of the program (2014-18) are funded by Carnegie Corporation of New York.

Through a varied set of activities, the program helps twenty young American China scholars and other specialists deepen and broaden their knowledge about China’s politics, economics, and society, and encourages them to use this knowledge to inform policy and public opinion. The multi-year enrichment opportunity is intended to complement the fellows’ primary academic or professional positions. It includes two meetings in Washington focusing on the D.C.-based China policy community; a meeting in San Francisco; trips to China as a cohort; participation in National Committee programs as scholar-escorts; access to a media coach who can assist fellows in writing and placing op-eds; and a requirement that the fellows organize local public education programs. For more on the program, visit http://www.ncuscr.org/pip.

PIP V Fellows: 2016-2018

Dr. Ang Yuen Yuen
Assistant Professor, Political Science, University of Michigan
China's political economy, China's bureaucracy, development strategies in emerging markets, complex systems, conditions for effective adaptation

Dr. Matthew Erie
Associate Professor, Modern Chinese Studies, Oriental Institute, University of Oxford
Anthropology of Chinese law, ethnicity and religion, legal implications of Chinese outbound investment in Central Asia, the Middle East, and South Asia

Dr. Matthew Ferchen
Resident Scholar, Carnegie-Tsinghua Center for Global Policy and Associate Professor of International Relations, Tsinghua University
Governance of China’s urban informal economy, the “China model” of development debates, economic and political relations between China and Latin America

Ms. Virginia Harper Ho
Professor, School of Law, University of Kansas
Comparative corporate and securities law, green finance reforms, corporate social responsibility, multinational enterprise governance and accountability

Dr. Denise Ho
Assistant Professor, History, Yale University
Twentieth-century Chinese history, society and culture in the Mao era, the Cultural Revolution, museums and material culture, urban history

Dr. Angel Hsu
Assistant Professor, Environmental Studies, Yale-NUS College/Yale University
Environmental policy, with a focus on climate change, energy, and air pollution issues, data-driven and big data environmental approaches, U.S.-China relations on climate change
Dr. Scott Kastner
Associate Professor, Government and Politics, University of Maryland, College Park
China’s foreign relations, contemporary cross-strait relation, international political economy

Dr. Aynne Kokas
Assistant Professor, Media Studies, University of Virginia
Media policy, media industries, U.S.-China trade, U.S.-China cybersecurity relations, China-Hollywood relations

Dr. Liu Sida
Assistant Professor, Sociology, University of Toronto
Chinese law, the legal profession, judicial reform, human rights

Dr. Oriana Mastro
Assistant Professor, Security Studies, Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service, Georgetown University
East Asia security issues, military strategy and operations, interstate conflict, war termination and coercive diplomacy, with a focus on China and its military

Dr. Dawn Murphy
Assistant Professor, International Security Studies, U.S. Air War College
China’s relations (political, economic, military, and foreign aid) with the Middle East and Africa, China’s contemporary rise, Chinese foreign policy and domestic politics, U.S.-China relations

Dr. John Osburg
Assistant Professor, Anthropology, University of Rochester
China's new rich and "second generation rich" (fu’erdai), corruption and anti-corruption, gender and sexuality, new forms of spirituality in post-Mao China, especially Han Chinese patronage of Tibetan Buddhism

Dr. Johanna Ransmeier
Assistant Professor, History, University of Chicago
Qing and Republican China’s legal history, trafficking, crime, family life, legal literacy, rights, contemporary art and expression

Dr. Maria Repnikova
Assistant Professor, Global Communication and Acting Director, Center for Global Information Studies, Georgia State University
Chinese media politics, symbolic nation-building, China-Russia comparative governance models

Dr. Jennifer Staats
Director, China Program, Asia Center, United States Institute of Peace
China’s foreign policy, China’s impact on peace and conflict dynamics, peacekeeping, peacebuilding, defense policy, grand strategy, cybersecurity

Ms. Sun Yun
Senior Associate, East Asia Program, Henry L. Stimson Center
China’s policies toward fragile states, U.S.-China relations, the Chinese foreign policy making process

Mr. Philip Tinari
Director, Ullens Center for Contemporary Art
Contemporary art in China since 1979, international exhibitions of Chinese art, global art history

Dr. Rory Truex
Assistant Professor, Politics and International Affairs, Department of Politics and Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs, Princeton University
Chinese politics, regime change and democratization, human rights, public opinion, quantitative research methods
Dr. Shellen Wu
Associate Professor, History, University of Tennessee, Knoxville
Politics of natural resource management, history of Chinese environmental policy, history of science, Qing and twentieth-century history, geopolitical discourse

Dr. Bin Xu
Assistant Professor, Sociology, Emory University
Civil society, politics of disasters, collective memory, nationalism, symbolic politics

Dr. Ka Zeng
Professor & Director of Asian Studies, Political Science, University of Arkansas
International political economy, trade, foreign direct investment, global economic governance

PIP IV FELLOWS: 2014-2016

Dr. David G. Atwill
Associate Professor of History and Asian Studies, Pennsylvania State University
Late imperial and pre-1949 Chinese history, ethnicity, Islam in Asia, borderlands politics, transnationalism in Asia

Dr. John Delury
Assistant Professor of Chinese and East Asian Studies, Graduate School of International Studies, Yonsei University
Modern Chinese history (1600-present), Chinese intellectual and political history, U.S.-China relations, Sino-Korean relations, Northeast Asia regional issues

Dr. Rob Efird
Chair, Department of Anthropology, Sociology and Social Work and Associate Professor of Anthropology and Asian Studies, Seattle University
Environmental education, Chinese public education, traditional/indigenous ecological knowledge, Sino-Japanese relations

Mr. Alonzo Emery
Lecturer on Law and Clinical Instructor, Harvard Negotiation and Mediation Clinical Program, Harvard Law School
Conflict resolution, legal pedagogy, disability law, the arts as vehicle for negotiating public dialogue and participation

Ms. Alison Friedman
Director and Founder, Ping Pong Productions
Cultural policy, role of “soft power” and cultural diplomacy in U.S.-China relations, arts and culture in the formation of national identities

Dr. Sara Friedman
Associate Professor of Anthropology and Gender Studies, Indiana University
Gender and sexuality in contemporary China and Taiwan, state regulation of marriage and family, cross-Strait relations, law and society, gender and migration across East Asia

Dr. Gao Qin
Professor, School of Social Work, Columbia University
Poverty, inequality, and income redistribution, social welfare policies, social insurance and social assistance, labor market participation and social protection for migrant workers, political economy of China
Dr. Sheena Greitens
Assistant Professor, Political Science, University of Missouri and Non-Resident Senior Fellow, Center for East Asian Policy Studies, The Brookings Institution
East Asian politics and international relations, Chinese foreign and security policy, state-society relations and authoritarian politics

Dr. William Hurst
Associate Professor, Political Science, Northwestern University
Chinese politics, Indonesian politics, labor politics, political economy, legal institutions and issues

Dr. Karrie Koesel
Associate Professor, Political Science, University of Notre Dame
Religion and politics, political education and patriotism, authoritarian resilience and cooperation, civil society

Dr. Ma Zhao
Assistant Professor of Modern Chinese History and Culture, East Asian Languages and Cultures, Washington University in St. Louis
Women and gender in 20th-century China, law and punishment, Chinese cities, rumor and political propaganda in Mao’s China, socialist culture, memory and politics in post-revolutionary China

Dr. Kristen McDonald
China Program Director, Pacific Environment
River conservation and resource management, water and air pollution, civil society and NGOs, ecotourism

Mr. Michael Meyer
Assistant Professor, English Department, University of Pittsburgh
Chinese agriculture, land rights, historical preservation, urban planning

Dr. William Norris
Assistant Professor, Bush School of Government and Public Service, Texas A&M University
Economic statecraft, East Asian security, business-government relations, Chinese foreign and security policy, international relations theory

Mr. Eric Priest
Assistant Professor, School of Law, University of Oregon
Chinese copyright law and culture industries, international intellectual property law, intellectual property law in the information age.

Dr. Victor Shih
Associate Professor, Political Science, School of Global Policy and Strategy, UC San Diego
Chinese politics, political economy of authoritarian regimes, political economy of finance, international political economy, elite politics, informal institutions

Dr. Rachel Stern
Assistant Professor, Law and Political Science, UC Berkeley
Legal development, social change, power, globalization

Dr. Jeremy Wallace
Associate Professor, Government, Cornell University
Political economy, urbanization, statistics

Mr. Timothy Webster
Assistant Professor of Law and Director of East Asian Legal Studies, Case Western Reserve University School of Law
Chinese law, international law, international investment, international human rights, property law
Dr. Ye Min
Assistant Professor, Academic Director of Asian Studies, The Frederick S. Pardee School of Global Studies, Boston University

Foreign direct investment, returnees and homeland states, China’s regional policies, China and India comparative politics

PIP III FELLOWS: 2011-2013

Dr. Gardner Bovingdon
Associate Professor, Central Eurasian Studies and International Studies, Indiana University at Bloomington

Politics in modern Xinjiang, relations among China, Russia, and Central Asian states

Dr. James Carter
Professor and Acting Chair, History, Saint Joseph’s University

Colonialism in treaty port China, historical preservation, Sino-Western cultural relations

Dr. Michael Chang
Associate Professor of Chinese History, George Mason University

The Qing court, political and institutional history, historiography, material and political cultures

Dr. Martin Dimitrov
Associate Professor of Political Science and Director of the Asian Studies Program, Tulane

Comparative international relations, rule of law, intellectual property rights, privatization/property transformation

Dr. Taylor Fravel
Associate Professor, Political Science and Member, Security Studies Program, MIT

Chinese foreign and security policy, with a focus on territorial disputes and military strategy

Mr. Keith J. Hand
Professor of Law, University of California Hastings College of the Law

Legal reform, constitutional law, judicial reform, the role and development of China’s procuratorate

Dr. Yinan He
Associate Professor, Department of International Relations, Lehigh University

Politics of memory and reconciliation, East Asian international security, Chinese and Japanese foreign policy, national identity and nationalism in East Asia

Mr. Thomas Kellogg
Director for China and Northeast Asia, Open Society Foundations, Lecturer in Law, Columbia Law School

Legal reform, Chinese constitutionalism, civil society development, Chinese foreign policy

Dr. Sabina Knight
Professor, Chinese and Comparative Literature and Director for Comparative Literature, Smith College

Literature and medicine, contemporary Chinese women’s fiction, philosophy and literature in comparative perspective

Dr. Joanna Lewis
Associate Professor, Science Technology and International Affairs, Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service, Georgetown University

Energy and climate change policy in China, energy technology transfer and innovation in China, international and bilateral cooperation with China on energy and climate
Dr. Darrin Magee
Associate Professor, Environmental Studies, Hobart and William Smith Colleges
Energy and water resources in China, dams and hydropower, electricity sector, geographies of garbage and waste, south-north water transfer, sustainability

Mr. Carl Minzner
Professor of Law, Fordham University School of Law
Chinese law and politics, judicial reform, rule of law, citizen petitioning, social unrest

Dr. Tashi Rabgey
Research Professor, International Affairs, The Elliot School of International Affairs at George Washington University
Theories of state, sovereignty and legal pluralism, regional autonomy, comparative federalisms and Chinese constitutionalism, multilevel governance, institutional politics and public policy in contemporary Tibet

Dr. Kay Shimizu
Assistant Professor, Political Science, Columbia University
Political economy of China, including central-local relations, rural development, urbanization, and industrialization, administrative reform and local governance, U.S.-Japan-China economic relations

Dr. Anthony J. Spires
Associate Professor, Sociology, and Associate Director, Centre for Civil Society Studies, The Chinese University of Hong Kong
Global civil society, philanthropy, grassroots NGOs, organizational culture

Dr. Phillip Stalley
Associate Professor, Political Science, DePaul University
China’s domestic and international environmental politics, climate change

Dr. Jessica Teets
Associate Professor, Political Science, Middlebury College
Local government innovation, civil society and governance

Dr. Janet Theiss
Associate Professor, History, and Director, Asia Center, University of Utah
Gender and family history in the early modern period, legal culture in late imperial China, global perspectives on Chinese gender history

Dr. Elanah Uretsky
Assistant Professor, Global Health, Anthropology, and International Affairs, The George Washington University
Civil society, organizational structure, governance, ethnic minorities, masculinity, sexuality, HIV/AIDS

Dr. Jessica Chen Weiss
Associate Professor, Government, Cornell University
International relations, Chinese foreign policy, nationalism and public opinion, popular protest and state-society relations.

PIP II FELLOWS: 2008-2010

Dr. Andrew Erickson
Associate Professor, Strategic Studies, China Maritime Studies Institute, U.S. Naval War College
Energy cooperation, securing East Asian sea lanes and supply chains, the rise of great powers, maritime strategy, space commerce and security, cooperation against avian influenza—all in the U.S.-China context
Dr. Kenneth W. Foster
Director, Global Studies Program and Associate Professor of Political Science, Concordia College
Environmental politics and governance, administrative reform and innovation, participatory governance, associations and NGOs

Dr. George J. Gilboy
Vice President Business Environment and Chief Economist, Woodside Energy Ltd., Affiliate Scholar, Center for International Studies, Massachusetts Institute of Technology
Chinese and Indian grand strategy/security behavior, political economy of technological innovation in China, Chinese energy industry development

Dr. Amy Hanser
Associate Professor, Sociology, University of British Columbia
Consumption and inequality in China, culture and social change in Chinese marketplaces

Dr. Yanzhong Huang
Associate Professor and Director, Center for Global Health Studies, School of Diplomacy and International Relations, Seton Hall University
Senior Fellow for Global Health, Council on Foreign Relations
Public health politics in China, environmental health in China, Chinese politics and U.S.-China relations, global health governance

Dr. Katherine Kaup
Professor, Departments of Asian Studies and Political Science, Furman University
Ethnic minority policy, provincial-county governmental relations, rule of law, human rights

Dr. Scott Kennedy
Deputy Director, Freeman Chair in China Studies and Director, Project on Chinese Business and Political Economy, Center for Strategic and International Studies
[Business lobbying, economic policymaking, Chinese participation in global regimes, U.S.-China relations]

Dr. Pierre Landry
Professor, Political Science, and Director of Global China Studies, New York University—Shanghai
Chinese politics, comparative local government, quantitative comparative political analysis

Dr. Charles Laughlin
Professor, East Asian Studies, University of Virginia
Psychological aspects, specifically the negotiation of desire, of revolutionary fiction and film from the 1920s to the 1960s, documentary impulse in contemporary Chinese culture

Ms. Margaret Lewis
Professor of Law, Seton Hall University School of Law
Legal reform in China/Taiwan, comparative criminal procedure, international law

Mr. Benjamin Liebman
Robert L. Lieff Professor of Law and Director of the Center for Chinese Legal Studies, Columbia Law School
Role of populism in the legal system, China’s courts, popular access to justice

Dr. Peter Lorentzen
Assistant Professor, Political Science, University of California, Berkeley
Central-local relations, media control, political economy of development
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Institutions</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Dr. Andrew Mertha</td>
<td>Professor, Government, Cornell University</td>
<td>Bureaucracy, policy making and implementation, politics of international trade, intellectual property and energy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dr. Tobie Meyer-Fong</td>
<td>Professor, History, Johns Hopkins University</td>
<td>Social and cultural history of late imperial China, post-Taiping Rebellion recovery, Qing conquest, Jiangnan region, women/gender, publishing history, urban history</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dr. Stephen Platt</td>
<td>Professor, History, University of Massachusetts, Amherst</td>
<td>Intellectual and military history of modern China, origins of Chinese nationalism U.S.-China relations since the 1800s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dr. Michael Szonyi</td>
<td>Professor, Chinese History, Harvard University</td>
<td>Social history of late imperial China, especially Ming, contemporary cross-Strait relations, debates about political reform</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mr. Alex Wang</td>
<td>Assistant Professor of Law, UCLA School of Law</td>
<td>Environmental governance, environmental law, open information, public participation, public interest litigation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dr. Timothy Weston</td>
<td>Associate Professor, History, University of Colorado at Boulder</td>
<td>Journalists and journalism in Republican-era China, Sino-Taiwanese academic exchange and influence over the past 20 years</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dr. Yu Zhou</td>
<td>Professor, Earth Science and Geography, Vassar College</td>
<td>Innovation and China’s high-tech industry, transnational Chinese communities in mainland China, Taiwan and the United States, multinational corporations and localities in China, China’s environmental policy and green building programs</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

PIP I FELLOWS: 2005-2007

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Institutions</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Dr. Allen Carlson</td>
<td>Associate Professor, Government, Cornell University</td>
<td>Chinese foreign policy, Asian security, U.S.-China relations, international relations theory</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dr. Mark Frazier</td>
<td>Professor, Political Science, and Academic Director, India China Institute, The New School</td>
<td>Labor politics and social policy, inequality and governance in China and India</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dr. Mary Gallagher</td>
<td>Professor, Political Science, and Director of the Kenneth A. Lieberthal and Richard H. Rogel Center for Chinese Studies, University of Michigan</td>
<td>Labor Relations and workers` rights in China, Chinese legal development, legal aid, dispute resolution</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dr. Ann Huss</td>
<td>Associate Master and Dean of General Education, Morningside College</td>
<td>Late Qing, 20th-century, and contemporary Chinese fiction and prose, translation, Chinese cinema and popular/print culture, Korean New Wave Cinema, Shanghai literature and culture</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Dr. Jan Kiely
Associate Director and Professor, Chinese Studies, Centre for China Studies, The Chinese University of Hong Kong
20th-century Chinese history, prison history, systems of indoctrination, Buddhist revival

Dr. Helen McCabe
Clinical Researcher, Hussman Institute for Autism, Catonsville, MD, and Executive Director, The Five Project for International Autism and Disability Support
Disability policy and practice in China, autism and special education in China, civil society and “NGOs” in China, inclusive education in China

Dr. Evan S. Medeiros
Managing Director and Practice Head, Asia, Eurasia Group
Chinese foreign and security policy, U.S.-China relations, Chinese military and defense industrial issues

Dr. James Millward
Professor, History, Georgetown University
Chinese and Central Asian history, environmental history, the Silk Road and musical globalization, global guitar culture

Ms. Allison Moore
Senior Access to Justice Expert, United Nations Development Programme, Myanmar
Rule of law

Dr. Jonathan S. Noble
Assistant Provost for Internationalization; Director, Asia Office; Interim Director, Center for Asian Studies, University of Notre Dame
Contemporary Chinese culture: film, theatre, TV, and media

Dr. David Pietz
Associate Professor, Modern Chinese History, UNESCO Chair in Environmental History, and Director of the Global Studies Program, University of Arizona
Resource development (water, oil), resources and international affairs

Dr. Phillip C. Saunders
Director, Center for the Study of Chinese Military Affairs and Distinguished Research Fellow, Institute for National Strategic Studies, National Defense University
Chinese foreign and security policy, Sino-U.S. relations, Asian security and political economy, non-proliferation

Dr. Kristin Stapleton
Associate Professor, History, University at Buffalo
Local government in urban China between 1895 and 1949, comparative urban administration, popular culture and humor in the Republican period

Dr. Edward Steinfeld
Professor, Political Science, Dean’s Chair in China Studies, Brown University
Chinese political economy, industrial upgrading and competitiveness, technology innovation, energy sector modernization.

Dr. Kellee Tsai
Division Head and Chair Professor of Social Science, Hong Kong University of Science & Technology
Professor of Political Science, Johns Hopkins University
Private entrepreneurship, informal finance and shadow banking, local political economy of China and India
Dr. Joseph Tucker
Assistant Professor and Director of UNC Project-China, Division of Infectious Diseases, UNC School of Medicine
HIV/AIDS, health of sex workers and other vulnerable groups in China, demography and social change

Dr. Wang Hongying
Associate Professor, Political Science and Balsillie School of International Affairs, University of Waterloo
Senior Fellow, Center for International Governance Innovation, Canada
China and global governance, China’s foreign economic policy, interaction between domestic politics and foreign policy

Dr. Susan H. Whiting
Associate Professor, Political Science and Adjunct Associate Professor, International Studies, University of Washington
Land rights, property rights, legal institutions in market transition

Dr. Wu Weiping
Professor, Urban Planning, and Director of the M.S. Urban Planning Program, Columbia University
Urban development, migration and urbanization, local innovation policy

Dr. Hong Yang
Charles J. Smiley Professor, Environmental Studies, College of Arts and Sciences and Vice President for International Affairs, Bryant University
Global climate change, geobiology, environmental studies, U.S.–China science policies