Public Address

BRUCE GILLEY

“Democratic Prospects in China: Historical, Comparative, and International Dimensions"

Monday, October 18, 4:00 pm, Todd 216

Bruce Gilley is Professor of Political Science in the Mark Hatfield School of Government at Portland State University. He is a specialist on the comparative politics of China. Gilley is the author of four books including The Right to Rule: How States Win and Lose Legitimacy (2009) and China’s Democratic Future (2004). His articles have appeared in Foreign Affairs, Comparative Political Studies, Politics & Policy, and Democratization.

Public Webcast

AMBASSADOR JON H. HUNTSMAN, JR.

"China and the U.S."

Webcast Moderator: Stephen A. Orlins, President, National Committee on U.S.-China Relations

Monday, October 18, 5:00 pm, Todd 216

Prior to assuming his current position as U.S. Ambassador to China in August 2009, Ambassador Huntsman was elected twice as Governor of Utah, served as Deputy Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Asia, U.S. Ambassador to Singapore and Deputy U.S. Trade Representative (USTR). At USTR, Mr. Huntsman negotiated dozens of trade and investment agreements for the United States with numerous countries, including China.